

Fall 2021 Events:

3rd Annual Rombout Colonial Days Weekend Encampment. September 25th 10am till 4pm, and September 26th Noon till 4pm.

Join crafts people, artisans, members of the 2nd New York, 5th New York, 1st Ulster Militia, the 23rd Regiment of Foot Royal Welch Fusiliers, and other living historians as they present lively demonstrations each day. Also join Judith Kalaora of History At Play, LLC as she presents Rendezvous with Rachel Revere on Saturday the 25th, and an encore presentation of A Revolution of Her Own: Deborah Samson, on Sunday the 26th. Times TBD. Presented in part by M&T Bank.

East Fishkill Historical Society Barn Sale. October 16th 9am till 3pm. Rain Date October 17th.

The EFHS will be holding a Barn Sale, selling surplus items that are currently overwhelming our facility. Art work, books, furniture, historical literature and other items. We welcome the community for a $20 donation for a space to sell your own unwanted items. You'll need to bring your own table and pop-up, we provide the space. Please sign up at eastfishkillhistoricalsociety.org. Check in and set-up begins at 8am. Please, no early birds.

Fall Workshops: With Jennifer Keeler-McMillan

Saturday October 2nd, 1pm till 4pm: Elderberry Syrup and Fire Cider. $40 per person. Learn to make your own immunity boosting elixirs and take them home. The History of Elderberry Syrup and Fire Cider will be discussed. Limited to 6 participants. All materials provided.

Saturday October 16th, 1pm till 3pm: Corn Husk Dolls. $20 per person.
Learn to make and decorate your own Corn Husk Dolls. Fun for the whole family.
The History of Corn Husk Dolls will be discussed. All materials provided.

Saturday October 23rd, 1pm till 3pm: Besom making. $40 per person.
Learn to make and decorate your own Besom or Witches broom. The History of Besoms will be discussed. All materials will be provided. Limited to 12 participants.

Saturday November 6th, 1pm till 2pm: Colonial Broom Making. $40 per person.
Learn to make your own authentic Colonial era broom. The History of Brooms will be discussed. All materials will be provided. Limited to 12 participants.
All workshops benefit the EFHS, and will be held outdoors.

EFHS:

Saturday November 13th, 3pm till 5pm: Annual Membership Meeting.
An overview of the past year. Election of board members. Meet fellow members. Get involved. Sneak peak at 2022, and the future of the East Fishkill Historical Society.
Refreshments will be served.

Elderberry Syrup and Fire Cider

Corn Husk Dolls

Besoms

Colonial Brooms